January 5 – 19, 2019

Find inner peace!

Ease and relaxation through guided meditation and provided support.
Dance amid a grove of coconut palms. Enjoy the community of free spirits!

*Enlighten Life with Madhukar. A light life. An enlightened life.
A retreat to find inner peace.*

Madhukar – modern master of the ancient Indian Advaita, likely the oldest and most effective guidance to happiness – has helped already countless people to find inner peace, through his Enlighten Life Retreats across the world

A chilled Enlighten Life Retreat with Madhukar in Goa, in which you learn to find inner peace.

Satsang with Madhukar, consisting of meditative silence and support, is held twice daily.

Let's explain: Satsangs are gatherings where busy minds cool down. Through silence, meditation, dialogue, music and ecstatic dance.

In Madhukar's presence and guidance you experience a tranquil state of consciousness. That enhances wisdom and nurtures your mind towards inner peace.

In Goa peace is at home – that's why everyone with a burning desire to be free feels attracted to the 'flower of India', today just like yesterday.

Arambol Beach is the place to be for spiritual people. The vibrant resort Free Flow Eco Yoga lies amid a grove of coconut palms, directly at the wide sandy beach. Simply a paradise.

Relax, heal and rejuvenate while enjoying boundless freedom: meditate, practice Yoga, surf, kite or chill-out on the beach.

Spoil yourself with a massage or detox with an Ayurveda treatment after partying, indulge in superfoods, you name it.

Yet true peace reveals in Satsang with Madhukar: Thoughts dwindling away, giving way to inner silence.

And this is your greatest bliss on that legendary Indian dream beach!

The retreat starts on January 5, 2019 at 06:00 pm and ends on January 19, 2019, after the Satsang in the morning. Retreat languages are English, German, Dutch and Russian.

In addition, free Yoga classes are offered. You are welcome to join!
